How is your financial adviser paid?

The fees and commissions payable to Calm Wealth Management are explained in Part one of the FSG and also below. Consultum may retain up to 2 per cent of these fees and commissions and then pay the balance to Calm Wealth Management, which engages your adviser to provide financial services. Of the amount received by Calm Wealth Management from Consultum, after covering your advisers operational expenses, the remaining amount is available to pay a salary or be distributed as a dividend to Calm Wealth Management shareholders.

Service and advice fees paid by you

Your initial appointment with Andrew Goodhand is complimentary. Subsequent general advice meetings following your initial appointment are charged at $330 per hour. If you become a client of Calm Wealth Management, Andrew Goodhand will explain how Calm Wealth Management operates, what you can expect and the payment options. All fees and commissions payable by you will be explained to you at the time advice is given and will also be detailed in a Statement of Advice, Record of Advice and Product Disclosure Statement(s).

You will have the ability to select your preferred payment option from the options below prior to the provision of advice. All amounts noted below are inclusive of GST:

Fee for service – once-off

This once-off fee will be charged for services provided and is based on an hourly rate of $330, the total fee will depend on complexity and time involved. You can elect to pay this once-off fee via a deduction from your product provider or you may pay by direct payment.

Statement of Advice (SoA)

A Statement of Advice fee is charged to cover the cost of researching, developing and preparing your advice document. This fee ranges from $2,200 to $11,000 depending on complexity.

Fee for service – implementation - initial

An initial fee for service represents the cost of implementing the advice contained in the SoA. This fee may be charged as a flat dollar amount up to $2,200.

Adviser service fee

The Adviser service fee represents the cost of providing our annual professional services to you. A summary of the services which you receive for this fee is contained in the Client Service Agreement. This fee may be up to 1.1 per cent per annum of assets under advice or charged as a flat dollar fee ranging from $2,200 to $22,000, both options will be negotiated prior to the implementation of any advice and depends on complexity and level of services required. You only pay an Adviser service fee if you agree to a Client Service Agreement and then, only until it expires.

Commission for life risk insurance products – Policies issued from 1 January 2020

Initial commission payable under an upfront structure is capped at 66 per cent from 1 January 2020. Ongoing commission under an upfront structure is 22 per cent of the annual premium paid. Both initial and ongoing commission under a level structure will continue to be capped at 37 per cent.

Other benefits?

In addition to the "Other benefits" section disclosed in part one, Calm Wealth Management has an arrangement in place with Credit Union SA and Thnk Advisory.

If you are referred to Calm Wealth Management by Credit Union SA, payment of $1,500 for full advice and $300 for single strategy advice will be made to Credit Union SA.
